Welcome to the Wilderness! Where endless adventures await you!
Here are some tips we think will help you as you explore the adventures at Wilderness Territory.

Shuttle Service—Take our on-site shuttle service to anywhere on property. Simply dial 0 from your cell or any house phone.

Level 2—When in doubt, stay on Level 2. All our lobbies, skywalks and access to all three of our indoor water parks are on Level 2.

Continental Divide—The Continental Divide Skywalk connects the New Frontier and Wild West regions of Wilderness Hotel & Golf Resort.

The New Frontier Region goes from the New Frontier Lobby by just past Klondike Kavern, where the Continental Divide is located, the hallways in this region are highlighted sage green.

The Wild West Region of the hotel goes from the Continental Divide back to the Wild West Lobby. The hallways in this region are highlighted burgundy red.

Glacier Canyon Lodge is connected to the Wilderness Hotel & Golf Resort via the Lost Canyon Skywalk.

Indoor Waterparks:
Wild Water Dome—Is home to aspen tubs for indoor tanning, the Great Wave pool, indoor cabana and the Dealing Mammoths raft ride. True adventurers will find the walkway connection between the back of Klondike Kavern and the Wild Water Dome.
Klondike Kavern—Popular attractions include the lazy river, Boanza Bluff and Hurricane Hill ride.
Wild West Waterpark—Favorites include the Black Hole thrill ride, Fantastic Voyage family raft ride, Bansack Ridge and Bumper Boats.

Outdoor Waterparks:
New Frontier Waterpark—Guests love this waterpark's lazy river, body and tube slides, hot spa and many play's play features.
Lake Wilderness—Indulge in this park's 13,000 sq. ft. pool with lounging ridge, body and tube slides, lap pool and cabana.
Lost World Waterpark—located at Glacier Canyon Lodge this park is home to the Halleys Comet Rafters, an adventure river, several pools and cabana.
