

INNOVATION & MOTIVATION:

CONSIDERATIONS FOR NURSING PRACTICE, EDUCATION, RESEARCH, WORKFORCE & ADVOCACY

THURS, OCT 25, 2018

BEST WESTERN PREMIERE PARK HOTEL, MADISON

8:00-8:30 am	REGISTRATION and CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST
8:30-8:45	Welcome and Overview of Program (WNA Tri-Council introduction)
8:45-9:30	Creative Thinking and Innovation - Michael "Mick" Carroll, PhD, MBA, CPA "Creative thinking, problem-solving and implementing new solutions." This presentation will provide an introduction on the relationship between creative thinking and innovation. The process of first developing creative ideas through to innovation will be modeled and explored.
9:30-9:45	BREAK
9:45-10:15	Rapid Fire Presentation Session #1
10:15-10:30	Questions for the Panel of Presenters
10:30-11:00	Rapid Fire Presentation Session #2
11:00-11:15	Questions for Panel of Presenters
11:15-12:00	Table Talk: Opportunity for individual interaction with the Morning Presenters
12:00-12:45	LUNCH
12:45-1:15	Motivation and the Art of Doing - Michael "Mick" Carroll, PhD, MBA, CPA This presentation will explore the characteristics of motivation and how to develop and tap into these characteristics to become more productive, inspired and fulfilled.
1:15-1:45	Rapid Fire Presentation Session #3
1:45-2:00	Questions for Panel of Presenters
2:00-2:30	Rapid Fire Presentation Session #4
2:30-2:45	Questions for Panel Presenters
2:45-3:00	BREAK
3:00-3:30	Table Talk: Opportunity for individual interaction with the Afternoon Presenters
3:30-4:00	Where will YOU go from here? (WNA Tri-Council wrap-up)

Please note that the schedule will be finalized after review of applications for presentations on 9/25/18. The number and length of 'Rapid Fire Presentation Sessions' depends on the number of accepted presentations.*