

What are the differences between WNA Individual Member and WNA Organizational Affiliate Member?

WNA Individual Member	WNA Organizational Affiliate Member
1. The individual RN is the member.	1. The organization is the member of the Organizational Affiliate
2. WNA member pays dues	2. Organizational Affiliate member pays dues based on number of members.
3. The individual who belongs to WNA has full access to ANA	3. The individual of an organizational affiliate does not belong to WNA with limited access to WNA and no access to ANA.
4. Receive a WNA/ANA membership card.	4. Not eligible for a WNA/ANA member card.
5. Receive the official WNA and ANA publications.	5. The Organizational Affiliate individual member receives WNA's official publication The Wisconsin Nurse
6. Participate in election of: WNA officers Board of Directors ANA Membership Assembly Representative and Alternates in accordance with ANA Bylaws. Council members Nominating Committee	6. Is ineligible to vote in WNA Elections
7. Be a candidate for WNA, or ANA elected or appointed positions in accordance with WNA or ANA Bylaws	7. Is ineligible for appointed positions.
8. Attend WNA annual and special meetings in person or joining electronically, and vote on official business of the Association.	8. One representative from each Organizational Affiliate can join WNA annual and special meetings.
9. Vote on WNA policy related issues.	9. One representative from each Organizational Affiliate can vote on policy related issues.
10. (One member – one Vote) Member voting at WNA Meetings requires a quorum of the total WNA membership (Does not include Organizational Affiliate representatives) If quorum is not achieved less than 5% of the WNA membership, the WNA Board of Directors is the voting body.	10. Organizational Affiliate representatives can vote on policy related issues if there is a quorum of the WNA membership. If there is not a quorum the WNA Board of Directors is the voting body.

11. (One member – one Vote) Member voting at WNA Meetings requires a quorum of the total WNA membership (Does not include Organizational Affiliate representatives) If quorum is not achieved less than 5% of the WNA membership, the WNA Board of Directors is the voting body.	11. Organizational Affiliate representatives can vote on policy related issues if there is a quorum of the WNA membership. If there is not a quorum the WNA Board of Directors is the voting body.
12. Vote on WNA governance related issues	12. Ineligible for voting on WNA governance related issues.
13. Serve as a representative to the ANA Membership Assembly meetings according to ANA and WNA Bylaws	13. Ineligible to serve as a representative to the ANA Membership Assembly meetings according to ANA and WNA Bylaws
14. Participate in and attend ANA member-related meetings, workgroups and other unrestricted activities of ANA	14. Ineligible to participate in and attend ANA member-related meetings as a WNA workgroups and other unrestricted activities of ANA as a member of an organizational affiliate.
15. Participate in and attend membership related activities of WNA.	15. Can be an invited participant in and attend membership related activities of WNA if the organizational affiliate were able to lend support and expertise related to the activity.
16. WNA President or designated Board of Director is the chair of the WNA Organizational Affiliate.	16. WNA President or designated Board of Director is the chair of the WNA Organizational Affiliate.
17. Volunteer to serve on Organizational Affiliate focused workgroups, sub-committee or task forces.	17. Organizational Affiliate can sanction workgroups, subcommittee or task forces that are related to policies that are harmonious to WNA.
18. Hold membership in one or more WNA Mutual Interest Groups (MIGs) if desired.	18. Ineligible to hold membership in one or more WNA Mutual Interest Groups (MIGs) if desired.
19. Be entitled to a fair hearing/due process before any disciplinary action is taken.	19. Organizational Affiliate member to be disqualified from membership in WNA Organizational Affiliate.

What are the Differences between WNA Member Benefits and Proposed WNA Organizational Affiliate Member?

WNA Individual Member	WNA Organizational Affiliate Member
1. Discount on all of educational offerings.	1. May be eligible for special pricing at the discretion of WNA.
2. WNA provides the infrastructure via employees for the administration of WNA goals and activities and programmatic work.	2. WNA staff will provide the infrastructure for twice a year meetings of the Organizational Affiliate and the appropriate workgroups which is subsidized through Organizational Affiliate membership dues.

Differences WNA Individual vs OA Member 011019

3. WNA member access password protected site on the website.	3. a. Password protected section on the WNA website for the two representatives of the Organizational Affiliate. 3. b. Organizational Affiliate related information or content that is developed by the O.A. will be posted by WNA.
4. WNA member access password protected site on the website.	4. a. Password protected section on the WNA website for the two representatives of the Organizational Affiliate. 4. b. Organizational Affiliate related information or content that is developed by the O.A. will be posted by WNA.
5. WNA elected members that belong to the Board of Directors, structural unit, committee will have access to the Distribution List of the corresponding entity.	5. a. WNA will maintain a Distribution List of the two representatives from each organization. 5.b. The individual O.A. representative would be responsible for forwarding of any messages to their Specialty Association members as it pertains to the WNA Organizational Affiliate work products.
6. Access to WNA Member Only information related to legislative advocacy and lobbying	6. Access to WNA Member Only information related to legislative advocacy and lobbying
7. Any member can attend meetings of the WNA Board and structural units upon notice. Voice but no vote.	7. Policy may be developed for Organizational Affiliate representative to attend WNA Board meetings, voice but no vote.