Session title as it should appear in program materials:

DEA Discussion of Drug Diversion, Security, Recordkeeping, and Drug Abuse Involving Controlled Substances

Description of content you will cover - as it should appear in program materials: Please be specific about what you will address – if you will include cases/work through examples - this helps registrants decide which sessions are most relevant for their learning needs.

School nurses are in a unique position to recognize drug abuse among parents, students and coworkers, and have a responsibility to prevent drug diversion within their practice setting. Join a DEA Diversion Investigator to identify the behaviors and signs of drug abuse and discuss illicit uses of drugs often kept on-site by school nurses. Learn security and recordkeeping practices to protect yourself and prevent drug diversion at your school.

Please write a few lines we can use to introduce you at the conference:

Retired Army with 23 years of service as a Military Policeman. I have been with DEA for 5 1/2 years as a Diversion Investigator (DI).
