Session title as it should appear in program materials:

School Nurses as Trusted Adults: What you can do to keep LGBTQ students safe and healthy

Description of content you will cover - as it should appear in program materials: Please be specific about what you will address – if you will include cases/work through examples - this helps registrants decide which sessions are most relevant for their learning needs.

School nurses have an opportunity to be a trusted adult LGBTQ students can rely on for support and accurate health information. This session will cover basic terminology and concepts related to sexual orientation and gender identity, highlight health disparities for LGBT students, and offer simple ways to create welcoming and inclusive environments for LGBTQ students.

Please write a few lines we can use to introduce you at the conference:

Molly Herrmann is an Education Consultant at the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. Her background includes public health, HIV prevention, services for survivors of intimate partner violence, and LGBTQ inclusion in health and education.
